THE story of a city is a story of its citizens, and so during 1934, while Winnipeg celebrated its 60th Anniversary, the Free Press deemed it appropriate to publish a series of brief biographical sketches and pictures of outstanding men of this city. For historical preservation and future reference these sketches are here reproduced.

The Free Press takes this opportunity of thanking all those who co-operated in the compiling of this record.

He studied law with Messrs. Campbell, Pitblado & Co., predecessors to his present firm. The business side of his profession has always been his major activity. His faith in the "Mineral Wealth" of the province and country finds its expression in the development of the many mining properties, of which he is actively interested. He is President, Island Lake Mines Ltd., Fifty-three Syndicate Ltd., Vice-Pres. God's Lake Gold Mines Ltd., Vice-Pres. and Director, The Sydney E. Junkin's Co. Ltd., Director Great West Saddle Co. Ltd., Richelleu Gold Mines Ltd., Wingold Mines Ltd., Direct Oil Refineries Ltd., Direct Oil Service Ltd., Motor Oils Ltd. His "Scottish" inclination finds scope in his work in connection with the "Caledonians," of which he was the first President and still an enthusiastic supporter. To the lads of the "Cameron Cadets" he has been a very real friend. The Winter Club and St. Charles Country Club are other sport and social enterprises which claim his interest. He is also a member of the Committee and Honorary Secretary of the Manitoba Club.

ARNI EGGERTSON,

Realtor, Builder, General Agent and Director Icelandic Steamship Co., Treasurer Iceland National League, born in Frodhusum, Borgarfjardarsyolu, Iceland, May 8th, 1873, was 14 years old when he arrived in Winnipeg in 1887. His first position was on an Indian Reserve at $20 a year, his next a bellboy in the Queen's Hotel. This enabled him to study, attend night school and business college; he then became book-keeper for Wilson Furniture Co. and later Robert Leckie Co. He next entered the employ of De Laval Separator and resigned as accountant and cashier in 1904 to commence his present business.

Mr. Eggertson was alderman, 1907-8, during the Hydro System programme, elected for a balance term by acclamation in 1917. In 1900 he came to Carberry, Man., and entered into the "Grain" business with his uncle, G. B. Murphy; with this association he received a thorough foundation and interested himself so much in the "Grain and Elevator" business that in the following year (1901), he made Winnipeg his headquarters. After a short period the firm of Smith, Murphy Co. was formed. Since its commencement Mr. Smith and his associates strived to make their company a success, always on the alert with a policy of true and fair dealings. The past 33 years has rewarded him with more than ordinary success, and during this period he has been twice president of the Winnipeg Grain Exchange (1914-15—1932-33). Mr. Smith's thoroughness and activity in Religion and Philanthropic work has gained him wide recognition; he is Vice-Pres. of the British and Foreign Bible Soc. and President of this Society in Canada.

Was born in Toronto, Peel County, Ont., September 3, 1882, son of Robert James and Frances (Gardhouse) Speers, of Peel County, Ont., and educated in Elmbank, Ont., public schools. He came west in 1904 and engaged in the farming, livestock, and grain business, in the district of Battleford, Sask., from 1915 to 1920. He then came to Winnipeg and engaged in the interests above mentioned, which he consolidated in 1925. Mr. Speers married Annie Ella Troughton, of Brampton, Ont., in 1907; has two daughters. His home is at 137 Kingsway. He is a member of the Manitoba, Carleton and St. Charles Country Clubs; a very extensive farmer and has made his hobby "Horse Racing" and "Breeding of Thoroughbred Stock" a large part of his business.

JAMES W. SPEIRS,

Pres. and Gen'l Mgr. Modern Dairies Ltd., was born in Glasgow, Scot., in 1891. Two years later he came to Winnipeg and received his education in our public schools. Leaving school he became associated with his father's milk and cream business from their own dairy. In 1910 he joined the late R. A. Rogers, Pres. of the Crescent Creamery, and served through all the branches of this firm, becoming assistant to the president in 1924. He continued in this capacity until the retirement of Mr. Rogers and the subsequent purchase by the Eastern Dairies of Montreal. Mr. Speirs then formed a company which took over the Modern and the St. Andrew's Dairy as Modern Dairies Ltd. He was made the Pres. & Gen'l Mgr. of the company which is thoroughly local in capitalization and which enjoys the confidence of the public as one of the largest and thorough organizations. This confidence has been met by expansion in plant, service and clientele. Mr. Speirs is a member of the Carleton and Southwood Golf Clubs, is a Mason, an executive of the National Dairy Council of Can., Canadian Manufacturers' Assoc., a director of Manitoba Dairy Mfg. Assoc., a Board of Trade member and late Pres. of its produce section. He lives at 459 Sprague St.

WILLIAM ALBERT STAPLEY.

General Manager of the Winnipeg Paint and Glass Company, was born in London, Eng., on June 11, 1885, and received his education at Maitland Park School, of that city. Prior to coming to Winnipeg in 1912, he served for ten years with Marshall and Snelgrove, Ltd., large dry goods merchants, obtaining valuable experience in organization, and later being second in command of a number of men. In 1912 he joined Canadian Fairbanks-Morse, Co., and stayed in their employ until 1916, when he formed a connection with the British and Canadian General Investment Company of London, and entered into business on his own account as Elsey & Stapley Co. He became President of his present company in 1924. The company was established in 1902 as jobbers of paint products, glass, lumber, sash and doors, and general builders' hardware, and of Martin-Senour and Pratt & Lambert products. His chief recreation is music. He is a member of the Men's Musical Club, and for many years has sung in the Winnipeg Male Voice Choir. A member also of the Rotary Club. In 1917 he married Mable Elsey, of Peterborough, Eng., and has three sons and one daughter. His own parents were George Stapley, of London, and Julia (Porter) Stapley, of Essex, Eng. His residence is 155 Cordova Street.

HON. JOHN STEWART

was born Christmas Day, 1882, in Perthshire, Scotland, came to Canada at the age of four and a half years, and is now minister of mines and natural resources in our provincial government. In private life he is a lumber merchant, president of the firm of McDiarmid Bros., Ltd. He was educated in the public schools of Winnipeg and in the years of his young manhood was a Manitoba farmer. Mr. McDiarmid was an alderman of the city of Winnipeg in 1925, a year later the electors of South Winnipeg sent him to Ottawa to the federal house. He later was elected a member of the provincial house and was chosen to fill the important post of minister of mines, natural resources and industry, particularly important because of the fact that only recently had the natural resources of the province been turned over to it for its own administration. In private life Mr. McDiarmid's amusements consist mainly of golf and curling, but he is a staunch sport supporter. He is a member of the Manitoba club and Pine Ridge Golf club, and has long been a member of the Strathcona Curling club. He resides at 353 Yale avenue, and has four sons.

HARRY STEINBERG,

President of Monarch Overall Manufacturing Co. Ltd., who came to this city nearly three decades ago, and who ever since has made it his home and has made of himself a successful manufacturer. He commenced in business with twenty machines in the year 1906, and in 1910 he organized the present company, which itself has increased until there are now 145 up-to-date machines. His company concerns itself principally with the manufacture of men's and boys' work garments, overalls and kindred lines, sold under the "Conqueror" brand. One of the leading products is children's play suits, the registered name being "Playalls," which, since it was put on the market in 1918 has become a household word from coast to coast. In 1925 and the four successive years, his company was awarded "Certificates of Merit" for products exhibited and entered in competition with the leading work clothing manufacturers on the American continent, at the annual exhibit and contest held in Chicago and sponsored by the International Association of Garment Manufacturers, for style, workmanship and utility of design. Mr. Steinberg is married and lives at 984 McMillan avenue.

FRED M. SURES

president of Sures Bros., Ltd., wholesale dry goods and manufacturers, was born in Bogopole, province of Podol, Russia, in 1885, and received his early education in that country. Mr. Sures came to Winnipeg in 1906 at the age of 21 and has been active in various business enterprises. In 1915 he organized the Canadian Shirt and Overall Manufacturing Co., Ltd. and in 1920 organized Sures Bros., Ltd., which in 1925 took over the Ames-Holden-McCreedy Co., in liquidation, and in 1931 took over the old established firm of R. J. Whittia Co., in liquidation. Mr. Sures is much interested in Winnipeg as a manufacturing centre for western Canada, and in 1931 became interested in an enterprise known as the Radio Oil Refineries, now an operating concern refining gasoline and other products for local and western use. Mr. Sures devotes much time to philanthropical work, is a past president of the Winnipeg Hebrew Free School; vice-president Canadian Zionist Organization of Canada, and has been in charge of various financial campaigns from 1916 to 1925. He is also a director of the Shaarey Zadek synagogue. He is a member of the Canadian club, the Winnipeg Board of Trade and the Young Men's Christian association. His residence is on Wellington Crescent. There is a family of three daughters and one son.

CAPEL TILT,

President, Tilt Grain Co. Ltd., members, Winnipeg Grain Exchange, Chicago Board of Trade, New York Produce Exchange, Winnipeg Stock Exchange, Grain Exchange, Winnipeg, Man.; President, Lake Shippers Clearance Association; President, Standard Elevator Co. Ltd.; Secretary-Treasurer, Winnipeg Grain and Produce Exchange Clearing Association; Vice-President, Fort William Elevator Co. Ltd. Was born in Lis-towel, Ont., September 24, 1871, and received his education in public schools.

Starting at the bottom of the (grain business) ladder at the age of 20 years, in the year 1892, and gradually reaching the top after 32 years of service and thorough experience, to the year 1924, with the grain organization known as James Carruthers and Co. Ltd., in Toronto, Montreal and Winnipeg, is the record of Mr. Tilt, and the foundation of his present company upon its organization, which for the past ten years have held recognition by their true association to clients and brother organizations.

Mr. Tilt is a member of The Manitoba, St. Charles Country, Pine Ridge Golf and The Winnipeg Motor and Country Clubs, and the Society of A.F. and A.M. For years his residence was 62 Hargrave St., but he now resides at the Fort Garry Hotel, Winnipeg.

HERBERT MASON TUCKER, who is a vice-president of the T. Eaton company, one of the largest mercantile operations on the continent. Mr. Tucker has been associated with the T. Eaton company since May, 1890, or more than four decades. He joined the organization in Toronto and for 16 years served in varying capacities, until in 1906 he came to Winnipeg as merchandise manager of the Winnipeg store. A year later he became assistant general-manager, and in 1917 was appointed a director of the company, becoming vice-president in 1925. Mr. Tucker was born in Muncey, Ont., Nov. 12, 1875, and was married Nov. 12, 1901, to Jane Gorman Rea. Mr. Tucker differs from many business men in that he has devoted to the company, of which he is now vice-president, all his energies. He has always refused directorships on other companies and is therefore connected solely and only with the big merchandising firm and its many ramifications. He is a member of many clubs, including the Manitoba club, the Canadian club, Carleton club, the Elmhurst Golf club, St. Charles Country club, the Motor Country club, etc. Mr. Tucker is a believer in outdoor recreation. His favorite sports being golfing, motoring and boating. He resides at 201 Dromore avenue, Winnipeg.
